SWORD Volunteers donate their time, skills and talents.

As a SWORD Recipient you will be responsible for the supplies, materials or parts needed to complete your request. At times, products are donated but are not a guarantee.

SWORD is meant to be a blessing during your time of need and should not become a source of dependence.

Please understand that our volunteers are working men and women that donate their time, skills and talents, but have other responsibilities and obligations as well. So please allow us time to respond to your request.
