A Word from Pastor Charlie

Intentional. 2018

If you have been engaged with us over the last month, you are probably getting tired of hearing the word intentional. But I am not going to stop. This is our goal and desire as disciples of Christ; to live an intentional life seeking and serving the Lord. We don't want to waste our lives, but want to use all that God has given us to make a difference in this world, building his kingdom here on earth. By now you know that intentional living is living in the moment, continually aware of the reality of Christ in your life - right here, right now. It involves an intentional mindset. It involves intentional submission. It involves intentional seeking and asking. It is a life of focus and purpose-centered on the only thing that matters. Christ himself.

Intentional living can't be a fad. It must be a lifestyle. It involves daily surrender. Daily following. Daily dying to oneself. Once we begin to live this way, we will find life and joy in ways and places we never thought possible. Once we embrace an intentional lifestyle, we will find that God is using us in ways that we never thought were possible. When the people of God begin to live with Christ-centered intention in all areas of their lives, we will find that homes, workplaces, and neighborhoods begin to look different because the light of Christ will be shining brightly through us. When we begin to live with intentionality, we will find that God is answering the prayer that Jesus gave us in the Lord's Prayer, "your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven."

I want to personally ask you to join me in seeking to live a life of intentionality. I am asking you to evaluate your life in light of God's word and make the changes that he is requiring of you. We must move from passively wasting our life away moment by moment and embrace every moment as an opportunity to live for Christ. I believe if we live this life, we will find joy unimaginable and will one day hear our Lord say, "Well done thy good and faithful servant." What a day that will be!

For His glory and your joy,
Pastor Charlie
